End Study Project

binary name: T-ESP-901_{$AcademicYear_}$ProjectName.md
delivery method: Moodle

Many living beings develop habits after spending time in the same environment...

...and some habits seem easier to establish than others!

Integrating a team can be complicated:

- You need to adapt.
- Some rules may exist.
- Many tools are already set.
- A bit of work has been done.

Newbies don't know usages, and like newborns, they have a fresher look on their surroundings.

DELIVERY

Each student who recently switched project has to submit one astonishment report, respecting the naming convention and describing various elements of the project:

- deployment
- development
- specifications
- working methods
- testing policies
- ...
